

California Wildfires: Victims, Ratepayers, Wall Street and an Intelligible Economic, Environmental and Public Policy for California's Future

Join us for a free lunch-time lecture on fire litigation, co-hosted by the Civil Justice Research Initiative and the Center for Law, Energy & the Environment.

Guest Speaker: Richard Bridgford

The founding partner of Bridgford, Gleason & Artinian LLP will be speaking to students and faculty about recent lawsuits filed against PG&E and Southern California Edison. He is co-counsel on cases that represent more than 2,000 victims of the 2017 and 2018 fires that occurred in Northern and Southern California.

March 11, from 12:50 p.m. to 2 p.m.

UC Berkeley School of Law

110 Boalt Hall, Berkeley, CA 94720

Lunch will be provided.

Reserve Your Seats Now

<https://bit.ly/2SG3dUW>

Richard Bridgford is a Founding Partner at Bridgford, Gleason & Artinian and is a successful trial attorney with 33 years of experience. He has obtained significant financial awards for his clients in jury trials, judge trials, arbitrations, mediations, appeals and pre-litigation disputes, all as first chair. Richard presently acts as plaintiff's counsel in the mass tort Northern California wild fires and Southern California wild fires.

BerkeleyLaw
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Center for Law, Energy &
the Environment

CIVIL JUSTICE
RESEARCH INITIATIVE